ROCK SPRINGS OCEAN SPRINGS

By Teddy Wickham

Driven by spirit and determination, the St. Stanislaus Rock-chaws came through to defeat the Ocean Springs Greyhounds 31-16 at the Stanislaus Stadium Friday, Nov. 11. The 20-00 defeat at the hands of McGill last week only made them more determined to defeat Ocean Springs.

Led by quarterback Kenny Artigues, the Rocks began to strut their stuff early in the first quarter. Artigues received the opening kickoff and ran it back 35 yards. The Rocks then drove down to the 30 yard line, from which Artigues scored on an off-tackle spring. His kick was ruled no good. They then kicked off to Ocean Springs, who began to move slowly. They brought the ball up to the 40 yard line, and Holloway then scored on a 40-yard sprint. They attempted to run the extra point, but failed, and at the end of the first quarter, the score was 6-0.

Artigues received the kickoff, and ran it back 7 yards for a touchdown, but it was called back because of an unnecessary roughness penalty. However, this did not deter Stanislaus. Ocean Springs kicked over, and the Rocks returned the ball to the 30. Climaxing a short drive, Billy Rhodes, left half for the Rock-chaws, found a hole in the left side of the line, and galloped 44 yards for an off-tackle touchdown. PAT, but failed. They then kicked off to Ocean Springs, who for a while looked as if they would come close to scoring, but were stopped short, and were forced to kick.

The Rocks moved downfield, and then scored on a 28 yard off-tackle play by Billy Rhodes. Artigues attempted the extra point, but failed. Thus ended the first half of play, with the scoreboard reading 18-0.

In the second half Stanislaus kicked off to Ocean Springs, who began driving downfield, but lost the ball to Stanislaus. Then Kenny Artigues, making up for the touchdown taken away from him in the 2nd quarter, galloped 12 yards, sans helmet. He then kicked the extra point, making the score 25-0.

Later, in the third quarter, Stanislaus received a punt on the 10, and moved it up to the 19. Then, on a first down, Mitchell Dequir, Rockchaw fullback, broke off tackle and scampered.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for their kind sympathy during the recent illness and death of our daughter. We also wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the Doctors and Staff of King's Daughters Hospital. Sincerely, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Saucier

At yards in the first half, the Rockchaw score of the game was 21-0. Artigues extra point that went wild of the uprights, and at the end of the first quarter the score was 18-0. During the last quarter, Coach Farley Day sent all of his second string to play for the rest of the game. The second string led by quarterback Larry Mather, made some dazzling runs, topped off by a sensational 75-yard touchdown by halfback Sidney Doussan after intercepting a pass thrown by Holloway of the Greyhounds. However, this was called back because of a penalty on the play.

Worthy, director of the film library has announced. The films, from the network's popular "You Are There" and "The Search" series, are available on a rental basis to schools, colleges and civic organizations.

Now available are 26 "You Are There" and six "The Search" programs. Additional films will be released for rental after Jan. 1, Dr. Worthy revealed. Each program is approximately 30 minutes in length on 16mm film.

The "You Are There" dramatic series has received enthusiastic acclaim from the public, historians and educators. Performed by professional casts in authentic costumes and settings, the program has repeated great historical events of the past as though they were happening at the moment. A public service program on television, "The Search" has dealt with a variety of interesting topics.

"These fine films represent a step forward in educational film service, and I am sure many groups will want to see them," Prof. Worthy said.

Interested parties are invited to contact the Educational Film Library for further information.

ENTERTAIN AT YC

Three Bay St. Louis hostesses, Mrs. W. W. Baltar, Mrs. Bernard Farrelly and Mrs. W. R. Salter, entertained last week at a large afternoon tea at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Guests were received by the three hostesses, who were attractively dressed in afternoon frocks and wore shoulder corsages of tiny golden colored mums. The dining room of the club was gay with arrangements of autumn blooms.

The tea table was laid with an exquisite imported lace cloth in a deep ivory tone and held a center arrangement of red and golden hued fall flowers with autumn leaves. Candelabra held lighted tapers, and close friends of the hostesses alternated in pouring coffee and tea. Matrons of the younger married set, wearing attractive late afternoon frocks, served as tea girls.

News From Bay High—

TIGER TALES

Bay High Band was one of the thirty-eight high school bands from Mississippi and Alabama which participated in the Mississippi Southern Band Day at Hattiesburg Saturday, Nov. 2.

Forty members of the band and majorette corps journeyed to Hattiesburg with their director, Marcel LaNasa and Mrs. LaNasa.

The band took part in a gala parade of the 38 bands at 2:30 in the afternoon. Later, at the half during the Mississippi Southern South Dakota State football game, the band appeared in the halftime show.

The words "Mississippi Southern Band Day '55" were spelled out on the field by approximately 1500 band students and majorettes. It was an impressive and spectacular sight with the brightly colored uniforms of the many bands lined up on the field to play the Mississippi Southern Fight Song and the Alma Mater. In addition to seeing Southern defeat South Dakota State 58-0, the band saw the Mississippi Southern Band show, featuring the "Dixie Darlings," which preceded the game.

The Southerners defeated the University of Louisville 55-26 in 1952 in their first Memorial Stadium appearance and came back a year later to blank the University of Georgia 14-0.

Resolutions Adopted For Better Driving

A series of resolutions aimed at better driving conditions, modernization of highway systems and a concentrated program for accident prevention were adopted by the Mississippi Automobile Club in its annual membership meeting at the Heidelberg Hotel recently.

The affiliate of the American Automobile Association petitioned the state legislature and the national congress in its efforts to secure better facilities and conditions for the motoring public.

The state legislature was asked to increase appropriations for the state Highway Patrol to allow:

1. Salaries commensurate to duties performed; and
2. Increased number of patrolmen to maximum strength authorized by law.

The resolution pointed out that it is "good economy for the people of Mississippi to spend some additional money for accident prevention, rather than suffer the tremendous loss of life, limb and property" due to accidents which are ever-increasing on the state's highways.

The MAC also proposed that Mississippi adopt the Uniform Traffic Code, a model code set up in several states throughout the country.

Cited as one major cause of accidents was the difference in traffic laws in the several states. "A uniform system... would be helpful to the motorist using the highways of the several states..." according to the resolution.

Another resolution urged the Mississippi delegation in congress to support legislation that would:

1. Increase the federal share of the cost of completion of the interstate highway system to at least 75 per cent.
2. Continue sharing basis for state primary and secondary road completions.
3. Complete modernization of the interstate highway system to four lanes.
4. Accelerate, broaden and complete primary and secondary roads in the state.
5. Provide that the $2 1/2 million annually collected from automobile excise taxes be spent in modernizing, improving, broadening and accelerating the highway building program.

Because the weather is so warm, many people are buying eggs at the grocery store. Eggs are often better and cheaper than those bought at the grocery store. Eggs are often better and cheaper than those bought at the grocery store.

No matter what the weather, eggs that have been kept and displayed under refrigeration in the store. And when you get them home, put them in the refrigerator at once.

Rich, Nutritious, Delicious
Dry and mealy, moist and sugary, cooked in the jacket or out, sweet potatoes are a prize package of food values.

If you are buying sweet potatoes, or selecting those for cooking from your home supply, the choice ones are smooth, well-shaped, firm and of bright appearance.

Any blow that will break an egg will break a sweet potato. So be careful not to handle them roughly.

To retain the greater amount of food value, cook the potato.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

BY HOWARD F. SIMMONS
Hancock County Agent

Wintering Cattle

There is no need to try to fatten commercial breeding cattle during the winter, or to use more than enough of costly protein.

A 100-pound bred cow, or two-year-old heifer will need a ton of average hay and 100 pounds of cottonseed meal for a 100-day feeding period. Or, a ton and a half of sorghum silage, 600 pounds of hay and the 100 pounds of cottonseed meal.

Cows with fall calves should be given two or three and a half tons of the silage, 600 pounds of hay and 100 to 150 pounds of cottonseed meal.

Herd bulls require special attention. A 1400-pound bull, wintered without pasture, can be kept in good breeding condition with a daily allowance of 30 pounds of silage, 10 pounds of good quality legume hay, 10 to 12 pounds of grain mixture and one or two pounds of protein meal.

As wintering cattle varies on individual farms according to the size of the farm, the numbers of cattle, the production system followed and the feed available, farmers should consult their local county agents for specific recommendations.

Cover Crop Planting

There is still time left to do some late planting such as cover crops on cultivated land and cereals and ryegrass on sod land.

Winter cover crops can be planted on land the farmer will be planting late in the spring for planting. An example is land to be planted to sorghum silage.

Sod seeding can be done on stands of Bermuda, fescue, carpet and Johnson and Mahia grass. Cereals or ryegrass planted on sod will withstand the early cold better than that planted on clean cultivated land.

Too, running the sod seeder through stands of any of the volunteer clovers or winter peas, even if these are up, will not hurt the stand.

Savings Bonds for Farmers

With the many hazards of nature and market conditions, a financial reserve is necessary insurance against unforeseen emergencies for the farmer. Farmers are being urged by all farm leaders to put a part of their income in Savings Bonds.

These Bonds are the safest investment in the world. They are safe if lost, destroyed in any way or stolen. They will be reissued without cost to the owner. Money invested in Savings Bonds can be had any time the owner needs it. In one sense a Savings Bond is a Government check bearing interest. These bonds pay 3 per cent compound interest if held to maturity.

Real independence, happiness and a feeling of security comes when we have savings. Many of our worries are removed when we have the satisfaction of knowing we have the money to take care of our needs.

All of us agree that we should have a backlog of savings. Most of us intend to have such—but too few of us get around to doing anything about it. Let me suggest to you a few US Savings Bonds.

Sheep and Lamb Sales

Sheep and lamb sales will be held at the Tri-State Stockyards at Greenville Nov. 10 and at the Farmers Stockyards at Macon Nov. 15.

Those who have lambs to sell should make an effort to have them at one of these sales. Also, there might be some sheep and lambs of the stocker type available at these sales for producers who are in the market for stockers.

RELANCE GETS CONTRACT FOR MARINE TENTS

The Reliance Manufacturing Co. of Columbia received an order for 8,000 general purpose tents for the US Marine Corps. Production of the tents began the latter part of October.

Age Assistance

By J. A. THOMPEN
Commissioner, State Dept. of Public Welfare

There has been quite a lot of talk about raising maximums in Old Age Assistance. Since the effect of this would not be as most people think, I will try to explain the situation.

Welfare payments are made on the basis of cost of living in Mississippi. Formerly we used the lowest budget basis that a person could exist on. About two years ago we changed to a medium cost of living budget. We priced merchandise in different cities of Mississippi and arrived at budget for one old person of approximately $61 depending on cost of rent, which cannot be averaged.

We find the expected income of the applicant and deduct that from $61. The result is the amount of budget deficit. At the present time we are paying 75 per cent of the budgetary deficit.

You might say that $61 is not enough to live on, and we would be inclined to agree. But had you thought that the Federal Government only allows $50 per dependent person on our personal income tax? Federal puts up most of the money we give welfare clients.

The number of people over 65 in Mississippi is increased at the rate of about 5,000 per year and will continue to rise until 1980 according to US Census estimates. To continue our program at its present figure of a maximum of $30 and care for the increased load, will take $19,500,000 for the next biennium, as compared to $17,500,000 for present biennium.

We do not see how the State, in view of the other programs' expanded needs, can give more than $19,500,000 to welfare.

It will take around $30 million to raise the maximum to $55 and continue to give those now getting under $30 the amount they are now getting. As stated above we are now paying 75 per cent of budgetary deficit. All those now getting less than $30 are receiving the full $75 per cent. Only those whose deficit entitles them to more than $30 but now can only get $30 because of the maximum) will get more than they are now getting by raising the maximum.

To raise the percentage from 75 per cent of deficit to 100 per cent so that all would get a raise would require $8 million more than the $30 million, or a total of $38 million.

If the maximum is raised and we get $19.5 million as needed to carry the program on the present basis of 75 per cent of budget, then every person who gets a check less than $30 will have his check cut for we would have to cut the percentage from 75 per cent to 60 or 50 per cent depending on what maximum is established.

Any dollar raise above $30 will have to be 50c state and 50c Federal, while in a $30 grant the State pays $7.50 and Federal $22.50. In a $25 grant, State pays $5 and Federal $20. Most people now getting $5 and $6 would have to be cut off altogether should the percentage be cut below 75, for their deficit would fall below $5 and we do not issue checks less than $5. The net result of raising the maximum above $30 without a corresponding increase in appropriations will be to cut the check of all now getting less than $30 and cutting off completely those getting $5 now.

Let's look at the $30 maximum. That is $360 per year. Last year the average income in Mississippi was $834. Most of our people would have to make less than $360 to bring the $25,000, the $15,000 and the $10,000 income and all those over $834 down to an average of $334.

Most of our clients were in this low income bracket during their productive years; and man and wife did not earn over $720. On a $30 per person grant, 2 people will draw $720 on a $30 maximum. Of course, there are some people who are on the rolls who made much more than that during their working years. We are required to use the same budget and apply the same percentage to all clients, based on the above budget procedure. The fact that $720 per man and wife is more than most of our clients made when they were working.

With less than $19.5 million for next biennium and a raise in maximums, we will have to cut those getting less than $25 per month in order to give those now getting $30, because of the maximum, 75 per cent of their deficits.

I want to see the unfortunate get all we can afford to pay, but I would hate to see a lot of people getting under $30 cut to $20 or $10, especially when $30 is as much or more than they made in their productive years.

The maximums should not be raised unless the appropriation is raised to cover the additional money needed. The maximum should not be raised to $55 unless the appropriation is raised to at least $30 million.

DIANNE BLANCHARD BECOMES BRIDE NOV 12 OF DONALD J. FAUST

One of the very beautiful fall weddings was celebrated Saturday, Nov. 12, when Miss Dianne Blanchard became the bride of Donald J. Faust, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin J. Faust of New Orleans. The ceremony was performed at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with Msgr. Michael McCarthy officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to wedding music played on the organ by Prof. Joseph Hemmelsbach. During the ceremony the "Ave Maria" and "O Lord I am Not Worthy" were sung by Louis Alexander.

The bride was gowned in an antique satin dress made with a full skirt which fell into a graceful cathedral train. The bodice was fitted and made with a round-neckline which had appliques of rose point lace reembodying in seed pearl and sequins. Her veil of nylon illusion was held to the head with a lace cap, and she carried a cascade bouquet of a white orchid centered among lilies of the valley and tied with streamers of white satin ribbons.

Six sisters of the bride were her attendants. Miss Joanne Blanchard was maid of honor and Misses Marianne, Dianne, Julianne and Anne were bridesmaids. Patricia Anne was junior bridesmaid and a cousin, Robin Ballina of New Orleans, was flower girl. They wore identical gowns of rose shaded taffeta, waltz length and self trimmed with tucking and self covered buttons fastening the fronts of the frocks. Their slippers were of satin matching their gowns in color, and they carried bouquets of violets and pink sweetheart roses and wore wreaths of the same flowers in their hair.

Richard Faust was his brother's best man. Groomsman were Robert Walsh, Larry Young, Arthur Keenan and Andre Travick, all of New Orleans. Ushers were Robert Ballina and Charles Unger, also of New Orleans.

Immediately following the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of Henry LaRose on N. Beach. Receiving the guests with the bride and groom were the mothers of the young couple. Mrs. Blanchard chose a beige peau de sole worn with bronze accessories and a bronze colored orchid and Mrs. Faust wore light blue satin

MISS RITA TRAVIRCA IS MARRIED SATURDAY TO DON ROLPH HAAS

Claiming much attention in Hancock County, particularly in the Kiln area, was the wedding Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the Church of the Annunciation in Kiln of Miss Rita Travirca, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Travirca, to Mr. Don Rolph Haas, son of Mr. Melva Haas and the late Mr. Sam Haas Sr.

The bride chose her sister, Mrs. Laverne Garcia, as her matron of honor and Miss Inez Moran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Moran, as her maid of honor. Acting as flower girl was little Anne McCallister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCallister of New Orleans and a cousin of the bridegroom. Sam Haas III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Haas Jr. of New Orleans, was ring bearer.

Mr. Sam Haas Jr. was his brother's best man, and his brother-in-law, Mr. Eric Larsen, acted as groomsmen.

The bride, whose mother is the former Miss Carrie Hart, daughter of Mr. Alec Hart Sr. of Kiln, was graduated from Kiln High School and is now working in the office of Mississippi Power Co. in Bay St. Louis.

Mr. Haas was graduated from Pearl River Junior College before going overseas with the US Army, where he served two years in Japan. At present he is employed by the Halliburton Cement Co., working out of Harvey, La.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Melva Haas in Kiln. The bride's table was covered with a beautiful white linen cloth hand-embroidered in Panama and brought back by the Sam Haas Jr. family. The table was decorated with white chrysanthemums and fern surrounding a lovely wedding cake, decorated with white roses and the traditional miniature bride and groom.

The couple left on a honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination after the reception.
